

Unemployment benefits application checklist.

You may be eligible for unemployment benefits if you are unable to work due to COVID-19.

Some scenarios include:

- Your employer temporarily closes the business to comply with state guidelines.
- You are temporarily laid off or your hours are reduced due to business slowdown or lack of demand.

For more on specific scenarios related to COVID-19 that may impact your eligibility for unemployment benefits, please visit esd.wa.gov/newsroom/covid-19.

Basic eligibility criteria for unemployment benefits:

- You must have worked at least 680 hours in your base year, and you must have earned at least some of your wages in Washington state.
- Your base year is the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters before the week in which you file your claim.

For example:

- If you file your claim in March 2020, your base year is October 1, 2018 through September 30, 2019.
- If you file your claim in April, May or June 2020, your base year is January 1, 2019 through December 31, 2019.

Find more on eligibility criteria for unemployment benefits at esd.wa.gov/unemployment/basic-eligibility-requirements.

If you think you are eligible, use this checklist, gather your information and get ready to apply.

Before you apply:

Gather the information you'll need to complete the application:

- Your name, Social Security number, birthdate and contact information.
- Your complete work history for the past 18 months including:
 - employer name(s)
 - address(es)
 - phone number(s)
 - start and end dates of employment for each employer
- Your bank account and routing number, if you want to sign up for direct deposit.

If you normally get your work through a union, had more than 16 employers in your base year, or were in the military during the last 18 months, you may need to provide additional information. Find more at esd.wa.gov/unemployment/have-this-information-ready.

How to apply:

You can apply online or by phone. However, call volumes are high right now and applying online is faster.

Setting up an account to apply online works best on a laptop or desktop computer; You can use a phone or tablet, but this service is not optimized for mobile and may be difficult to navigate.

Like most Washington state agencies, Employment Security Department uses SecureAccess Washington (SAW) to manage access to customer accounts. If you do not already have a SAW account, you'll need to create one. If you do, you can use that same username and password to access eServices.

- Start by going to secure.esd.wa.gov/home.
 - For more help, use the instructions in the eServices User Guide posted on our website under Step 2 at esd.wa.gov/unemployment.

